BEN KERNER

The story of the St. Louis Hawks and the club's Cinderella climb to the summitt as one of the sports' world's finest franchises revolve around Ben Kerner, and his grim determination to "make a go" of a situation that had been escribed countless times as virtually hopeless

The story of Kerner and his Hawks started back in his home town of Buffalo, N.Y. A Canisius College and University of Buffalo alumnus, he founed a profitable sports advertising and promotion firm in the early 1940's. He entered service in 1942, and by the time he came out, a business associate, Leo Ferris, had acquired a franchise in the Old National league. Seldom has a man, roped into an investment of something in which he had little interest, worked as hard as Kerner did the next 10 years - from Buffalo to the Tri-Cities (Moline and Rock Island in Illinois and Davenport, in Iowa) to Milwaukee where the end was evident when the Braves took the town and territory by storm.

Ferris long since had departed, having sold his end to Kerner. And bitten deeply by the basketball bug, Kerner had battled major cities in the pro basketball war. He had outlasted many, including St. Louis, Chicago, Detroit, Pittsburg and Toronto - but at a terrific price to personal pride. His Hawks finished fourth in his division four straight times, in the merged National Basketball Association, due mainly to his being forced to sell whatever star players he developed in order to continue in business.

Kerner was in basketball 10 years and had lost $108,000, without ever drawing a cent in salary, when the end appeared near in Milwaukee at the end of the 1955 season. This was due partly to a lack of basketball interest...and partly due to the great popularity of the Milwaukee Braves.

After visiting several other cities, Kerner decided to move the team to St. Louis, despite the pleas of various sports officials and newspapermen throughout the country who pointed out to him that this city had already lost one pro basketball team - the Bombers; a major league baseball club - the Browns, and a hockey team, the Flyers.

"I made up my mind to come to St. Louis," Kerner remembers," since there had been newspaper interest here and we did draw around 8,000 people that previous February when we played here, despite competition from the opening of Cinerama and some other funcations. And the game was played on Ash Wednesday too."

The rest is sports history. By astute trading, he built a club that, starting in 1956-57, won five straight Western Division titles and one world championship, in 1957-58.

Last year, injuries to key personnel and the loss of guard Len Wilkens to military service were factors in the club's plumenting to fourth place in the West. But when a rebuilding of the entire club was evident, Kerner took charge of the job in a hurry. Five top draft choices were immediately signed and trades brought Mike Farmer and Ralph Davis, two veterans who could help the club tremendously.

Back in his early days in the sport, coaches were expendable and in Milwaukee alone had three - Doxie Moore, Andrew (Fuzzy) Levane and William (Red) Holzman. In St. Louis, Ben has had nine - Holzman, Dugie Martin (who asked to be replaced since he felt he was more valuable to the club as a player), Alex Hannum, Andy Phillip, Ed Macauley, Paul Seymour, Bob Pettit (who handled the club for a few games ala Martin), Levane again, and now Harry Gallatin. It is typical of Kerner that he helped acquire jobs for men who at one time coached for him. Levane was head coach of the New York Knicks, helped into that post by Kerner going to bat for him. Holzman is nowchief scout and assistant coach of the Knicks. Hannum is now coach of Syracuse. In fact, Kerner once gave Red Auerbach, his coach at Tri-Cities, to Boston, when the Celtics pleaded "that they need a big name" to help them establish the sport in that city. Last year, when a replacement was needed shortly after the season started, Kerner was flooded with offers of help from former players including one from Levane who left a flourishing insurance business to finish the season coaching the club.

When he came to St. Louis, Kerner immediately found that all of his advisors were wrong. All that this area needed was someone to present a good representative team and be willing to work to put pro basketball across to the public in the proper setting.

An astute promoter, Kerner instituted a summer clinic program for youngsters employing Hawks players as instructors. The clinics are staged throughout the Illinois and Missouri area and have attracted more than 400,000 youngsters the past four years. Most of the other NBA clubs have since followed suit in some form or the other.

Four years ago, Kerner presented a series of clinics and fashion shows for women, two at the fashionable Sheraton-Jefferson Hotel in St. Louis, and another at Kiel Auditorium. This was in keeping with his policy of interesting the female fan in the Hawks.

A pioneer in presenting added attractions at his games, Kerner has featured some of the nation's top entertainers on the Hawks Bandstand each season. Some of the names who have appeared are Duke Ellington, Count Basie, Lionel Hampton, Louis Armstrong, Sammy Kaye, Harry James, Billy Williams, the Four Freshmen, George Shearing, the Crew Cuts, the Dukes of Dixieland and the Glenn Miller orch. This year, Guy Lombardo, Stan Kenton and the Four Freshmen will make repeat performances.

Other special events have included pro tennis matches featuring the top players in the world; golf exhibitions by top touring pros, and a special Invitational Bowling Tourney that lastyear saw six of the nation's top keglers roll on special alleys constructed at the Arena. Nearly 12,000 fans, the largest crowd ever to see a bowling match saw St. Louisian Ray Bluth walk off with the top prize.

Recognizing that basketball interest was dormant when the team first moved here, Kerner organized the need for a speaker's bureau and now players and officials of the Hawks organization make more than 300 personal appearances. Films are also available to clubs, groups and organizations through the Hawks office.

Four years ago, when he realized new seats and a better floor arrangement were needed at Kiel Auditorium, he advanced the City of St. Louis $35,000 so that the new setup could be purchased quickly. Then he purchased a $2500 scoreboard and presented it to the city as a gift.

Three years ago, he had the Fred Medart Co. of St. Louis design special baskets, operated on a hydralic lift, for use at Kiel. These were the first to be installed anywhere in the world.

This year, he is advancing the city money to purchase a new floor at Kiel and two years ago, when the Hawks started to play some games at the Arena, he purchased a new floor for use at that building. Foiled in his attempt to get Elgin Baylor from the now Los Angeles Lakers (he offered $200,000), he bought "the floor he played on", giving the Lakers $12,500 for their court.

A pioneer in the field of radio and tvsports programing, the Hawks have the most lavish program in both media in the NBA. All of the club's games are broadcast live and direct, including pre-season contests, while from 10 to 15 TV contests during the regular season are televised back to St. Louis.

Several weekly radio shows featuring Kerner himself and other Hawks players and front office personalities are presented.

Pro basketball has become Kerner's entire life. One has only to watch him at a game to really appreciate the intensity of his feelings Well-respected by newspapermen all over the country, he enjoys the best press of any mogul in the sports world. And that respect continue to his players. Many of his top stars have exclaimed "that they would rather retire than play for another owner."

Kerner shuns the limelight. He has turned down countless honors rather than to have to accept them publicly. "They come to see my ball club, not me,"he explains

Basketball is a constant challenge to him - a seven-day-a-week, 365-day-a-year position. This is best illustrated by an incident that happened after the Hawks won the world championship. The post-game celebration ended in the wee hours of Sunday morning, yet when a local newspaper sent a photographer to the Hawks offices at 9 A.M. that morning, a Sunday when the majority of St. Louisians were still asleep there was Kerner busy at work.

"What happended last night is over with," he explained, "Today starts a new season.

Obviously, Kerner is not one to rest on yesterday's achievements.

Kerner is cognizant that a rebuilding job on the club is in order and he's dedicated himself and his organization to getting the Hawks back on top in the Western Division of the NBA.

.....HISTORY OF THE ST. LOUIS HAWKS.....

The rise of the St. Louis Hawks to prominence in the National Basketball Association is a success story that rates second to none in the annuals of sports. Unwanted after four years in Milwaukee, the Hawks were moved to St. Louis in May of 1955, entering a city that already lost one NBA franchise (St. Louis Bombers), a baseball club (St. Louis Browns) and a hockey team (St. Louis Flyers).

Although injuries were responsible for last year's decline when the Hawks failed to win an unprecendented sixth straight Western Division title, the club has still won five titles in seven years and missed only one playoff berth since moving here. And the Hawks still ran one-two in attendance among league members.

Owned by one of the game's pioneers, Ben Kerner, a former Buffalo, N.Y. advertising man who gave up several lucrative businesses to remain in pro basketball, the Hawks were first located in the Tri-Cities (Rockford, Moline and Davenport, Ill.) The first move was to Milwaukee for the 1951-52 season, then four years later Kerner brought the club to St. Louis.

Several key trades and some astute drafting helped the Hawks as they emerged with one of the game's top superstars in Bob Pettit and a supporting cast of top stars that dominated the Western Division for five seasons until last year. The Hawks won their first Western title in the 1957 season, after the race ended in a three-way tie for first place. The Hawks downed Fort Wayne, then Minneapolis for the crown.

After sweeping the Western Division playoffs, they fought Boston right down to the wire before losing the World Series title in the final game of a seven-game series, 125-123, a double-overtime tilt.

In 1957-58, the Hawks soared to the World Championship, defeating Boston four games to two after winning the Western Division crown by eight full games. The next year they won the Western crown by a 16-game margin, the widest in league history. However, they lost to the Minneapolis Lakers in the Western final playoffs losing the final two games by one and two point differences. An injury to Slater Martin, star Hawks guard, in the second quarter of the first game hurt the Hawks. The Hawks two wins in the six game set were by margins of 30 and 34 pts.

In 1959-60, the Hawks again won by 15 games and lost to Boston in a seven-game world series. Two years ago, the club posted a record 51-and-28 mark, to win their fifth straight WD title by 15 games. But again Boston triumphed in the finalseries, four games to two.

Last season, injuries to Clyde Lovellette (he missed 40 games), John McCarthy (he missed 65), Larry Foust (he missed 23), Barney Cable (he missed 15) and the loss of Len Wilkens, the club's best guard, to service, hurt tremendously. Despite occasional spurts including one five-game win streak, the Hawks failed to regroup and finished fourth in the West.

Some of the former stars of the NBA who have played for the Hawks through the years include Jack Coleman, Frank Brian, Mel Hutchins, Jack Nichols, Max Zaslofsky, Ed Macauley, Slater Martin and Chuck Share....

THE HAWKS RADIO AND TELEVISION TEAM - BUDDY BLATTNER AND JERRY GROSS

ROBERT G. (BUDDY) BLATTNER, who has broadcast more National Basketball Association games than any other announcer - 630 - will be starting his eighth season this fall...The Voice of the Hawks was a major league baseball player, breaking in with the New York Giants in 1946, and as the lead-off man, batted .255 and drove in 95 runs in 126 games, splitting duties at first and second base...After three years with the Giants, he culminated his major league career in 1949 with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Following his diamond career, Blattner broadcast the St. Louis Browns games for three and a half years...He then switched to the radio Game of the Day series...In 1954, he was seen on the TV Game of the Week baseball series, helping to make this feature one of the top-rated sports programs in the history of televsion...

He has been the host of the "Baseball Corner," on ABC, and sundry other network shows and did several pre-game World Series shows in recent years...Two years a go, he broadcast the Japanese All-Star game back to the United States via ABC-TV, as part of that network's Wide World of Sports feature.

At the ripe age of 13, Buddy won the Missouri State table tennis title, winning it three years in succession. Then, at 15, he went on to win the world's title at Prague, Czechoslavakia, repeating the next year in Austria...He also won the Missouri State high school tennis title three straight years and copped the Mid-West Junior Davis Cup twice, while emerging undefeated in four years of high school play...

Nationally-recognized as the finest basketball announcer in the business, he got his start in radio while in service, broadcasting play-by-play for the Armed Forces Radio Service after an illness forced him out of a tennis exhibition he was making with Bobby Rigg and Don Budge.

He is married to his high school sweetheart, Barbara Friemuth, and they have three daughters, Barbara Lynne, Deborah Anne and Donna Jean...

Last summer, Buddy handled the play-by-play for the Los Angeles Angels of the American League...

JERRY GROSS, who came to St. Louis two years ago with a background of sports announcing in the East, will handle the color on radio and TV for his third year...Like Blattner, he prefaced his broadcasting with a history of active participation in sports...He was a basketball and baseball star at Middlebury (Vt.) College and later played professional baseball...In service, as an infantry Lt., he doubled in brass as an athletic director for his unit, baseball manager and official...As an announcer, Gross has done play-by-play of baseball, basketball, football and hockey...He is married to the former Gretchen Olson and they have two youngsters, Susan Elizabeth, age seven months, and Jeffrey, age three.

Gallatin signed a two-year contract in mid-March of 1962 to coach the Hawks, and received the highest salary ever accorded a Hawks mentor. Prior to taking the St. Louis job, Harry served for four years as head basketball coach at Southern Illinois U. in Carbondale, Ill.

A native of Wood River, Ill. and a 1944 graduate of Roxona, Ill. high school, Harry served 15 months in the Navy during Wolrd War II before entering Northeast Missouri State College at Kirksville where he played three years, 1946 to 1948. He was the first draft choice of the New York Knicks in 1948.

He played a total of ten seasons in the NBA, nine with New York and one, his final year, with Detroit. He was known as basketball's original Iron Man playing in 682 consecutive contests, and 64 straight playoff games.His mar has since been bettered by Dolph Schayes of Syracuse who turned the trick last year.

As a pro, Gallatin scored 8,843 points in 682 games for a 13.0 per-game mark including a lifetime field goal % of .398 and a lifetime free throw mark of .773. He averaged 12.6 rebounds a game. He was chosen to play in eight All-Star games (1951-52-53-54-55-56-57) and he was named to the All-League first team in 1954 and the second team, in 1955.

After retiring from the pro ranks in 1958, he became head coach at SIU and had a four-year mark of 81 wins and only 35 losses. His 1962 club had a 21-10 record and placed third in the NCAA Small College Division tourney at Evansville, Ind. In the 1961 Small College poll, his club was rated fourth nationally with a 20-5 mark. SIU won the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference title in 1960, 1961 and 1962.

He is married to the formerly Beverly Hull of Burlington,Iowa and they have three sons, Stephen,10; Jim, 8; and Bill, 6.

ROBERT E. PETTIT Jr.

AGE: 29 Big Blue
HGT: 6-9 Dixie Dandy
WGT: 230 Bombardier
Born: Baton Rouge, Louisiana on December 12, 1932
Residing: Baton Rouge, Louisiana
College: Louisiana State University - 1950 to 1954

Like good cheese and fine wines, Pettit keeps getting better with age. ..Last year, was the finest in his career despite the fact that the fortunes of the Hawks were down over previous seasons...Pettit scored 2429 points in 78 games for a 31.1 average, fourth best scorer in the league and third best in average...He had a 18.7 per game retrieve mark, fourth best among the league's rebounders....He set career single season marks in field goal percentage (.450); free throw % (.771),points scored and average per game...And he upped his NBA total points to 15,325 in eight years, fourth highest in league history behind Dolph Schayes, Bob Cousy and Paul Arizin...Last season, Bob was named to the first team NBA All-League squad for the eighth straight time and saw action in his eighth straight All-Star game...That game was held in St. Louis and saw the West win their second straight contest with Pettit winning his fourth All-Star game MVP award...(he shared it one year with Elgin Baylor)...Bob has won the league's MVP award twice - in 1956 and 1959....Annually leads the club in every department except assists, and field and free throw percentage, and he is usually among the top three in that department...He holds 22 team seasonal and career marks...He was the first draft choice of the Hawks in 1954, after a meteoric career at LSU...He failed to make his high school club as a freshman and sophmore, then blossomed into a star by practicing diligently after school, sometimes even by searchlight...He led Baton Rouge High to a pair of scholastic state titles ...He passed up 40 college offers to remain at home and attend LSU... In his college days, he scored more points (2002) than any other Southeastern Confernce player up to that time...He set four SEC marks - 464 points in 11 games; 170 field goals in one season;single game high of 57 points and 23 field goals in a single game...Scored 612 pts as sophmore; 573 as junior and 817 as a senior...All-State and All-American in high school...Two-Time All-American in college, then made rookie of the year in NBA in first season of play, feat accomplished by only four other pros - Baylor, Chamberlain, Groza and Robertson, coupled with All-League selection...Has won four Hickok Athlete of the month awards - Jan. 1958, March, 1957, April 1958 and Jan. 1959...His high game as a pro came Feb. 18, 1961 against the Pistons in Detroit. ..High mark of college career was 60, scored against Louisiana College ...Greatest game was against Boston in final game of 1958 playoffs when he scored 52 markers including 19 of the Hawks 21 points in the final minutes of the game...Earned name of Big Blue seven years ago when he used to carry old blue overcoat since discarded...Hawks team captain and player representative...He has an insurance business and real estate and home development business in Baton Rouge, La...He is an avid water skier and owns own boat...Member of Rawlings Sporting Goods Advisary Staff...That company's best selling basketball is the Bob Pettit Dixie Dandy model...Also runs summer basketball camp in New Hampshire...A devotee of country and western music...

WGT: 215
Born in Owensboro, Kentucky on December 9, 1931
Residing:Florissant (St. Louis) Missouri
College: University of Kentucky from 1949 to 1954

Cliff continued his fine all-around play last season although injuries hampered him a good part of the campaign...He was 10th in scoring in the league with a 22.9 mark and fourth in free throw percentage with a .825 mark...Both that record and his field goal % of .470 were career highs for him...He was credited with 370 assists, onceagain tops among the big men in the league and eighth best in the circuit. ...Only Bob Cousy, Bob Leonard, Jerry West, Oscar Robertson, Richie Guerin, Guy Rodgers and Gene Shue...He has a career mark of 20 points a game, remarkable when you consider he averaged only 5.5 a game in his rookie year...Had his best single game as a pro last Feb. 11 here against Cincinnati when he scored 55 points on 19 of 39 field goal tries and 17 for 17 free throw tosses...Cliff came to the Hawks in the now celebrated three-man trade with Boston at the end of the 1955 season, along with Ed Macauley, for Bill Russell, who was the Hawks first choice in the spring draft that year...He was in the Air Force at that time, and at first the Hawks figured to play him in the back... He had a so-so season that first year until a hand injury to Bob Pettit on Feb. 15, 1957 game him a chance to play regularly...He finished the season with a 10-point-a-game mark after earning a starting berth and he averaged 17.0 points a game in the playoffs...In service, he led Andrews Air Force Base to the Armed Forces title that year (54-55) and was named to the Armed Forces all-star team...Cliff played on the great Kentucky team of 1954, a club that won 25 in a row...He and Frank Ramsey of Boston were co-captains of that club...In his senior year at Kentucky, he averaged 24 points a game on 600 markers in 25 tilts.. .He grabbed 528 rebounds in his junior year for a collegiate mark that was to be broken by Bill Russell...He set a school and personal college mark of 42 points against Tennessee in 1952...In college, he set a dozen Southeastern Conference marks...Cliff has been chosen to play in five all-star games and has been named to the NBA second team twice - in 1958 and 1959...Kentucky won 86 of 91 games with Hagan and Ramsey ...In 1949, he led Owensboro high school to the state hoop title beating Lafayette 64-57 and scoring 41 points in the final game...He's a great feeder as witness his ranking in assists - eighth this year, ninth last year and 10th in 59-60...In the off-season, Hagan works for the Adams Dairy Co. of St. Louis and also runs a summer camp in August in NewHampshire...He holds a Master's Degree in Education from Washington U. of St. Louis...He is also athletic director of the Florissant Valley Country Club...He has lived in that city for five years....All-State and all-american in high school, his rivalry with Frank Ramsey wasso great that newspapers kept a daily chart of their scoring...He helped knock off Madisonville high in the first year of the state tourney when he and Ramsey were juniors in high school...He is married to the former Martha Milton and they have three daughters, Lisa, age six, Laurie, age 4½ and Amy, eight months...

Severe injuries hampered Clyde last year, limiting him to 40 games and proving another factor in the downfall of the club last season... Even at that, he scored 837 points for a 20.9 mark, fourth best of his career...The injury to his achilles tendon occured in the fourth quarter of a game with Philadelphia there Jan. 5...He sat out until Feb. 3 when he reinjured it the first minute of play against the Lakers here...He had a .471 field goal percentage which was tied for the best mark on the club and he led the team in free throw conversions with a percentage of .829...Teamed up with Bob Pettit and Cliff Hagan to form the UnMatchables, rated by many as the greatest front line in the history of basketball...In their heyday, they averaged better than 70 points a game...Long regarded as one of the greatest shooters in the history of the game, Clyde is also a better-than-average defensive man...He plays Wilt Chamberlain the best of any NBA center...He was acquired by the Hawks in September, 1958 from Cincinnati in a five-player deal that saw the Hawks give up Wayne Embry, Jim Palmer, Ken Sidle, Darrell Floyd and Gerry Calvert...Only Embry, the Royals starting center, is still in the league...Clyde was a great high school star at Garfield high school in Terre Haute, Ind.scoring 32 points in his first high school game at the age of 14...He was tendered scholarships by 45 colleges when he graduated but finally selected Kansas... He led the Jayhawkers to three Big Seven titles, one NCAA crown and one NCAA runner-up spot...Kansas became the first Big Seven school to win a post-season crown...He scored 1910 points there for a 24.5 mark over three years, setting seven NCAA scoring marks...He won All-America honors in his junior and senior years and All-Big-Seven honors for all three of his varsity years...He spurned pro offers including one of $50,000 for three years from Ben Kerner, then at Milwaukee, to play AAU ball with the Phillips 66 Oilers...He led the United States to the Olympic courttitle in Helsinki, Finland in 1952...Won All-NIBL and All-AAU honors in his lone year in the amateurs...First draft choice of the Lakers in 1952...As a collegian he had his best scoring night against St. Louis U. getting 44 tallies...He scored 39 points twice as a pro, vs NY Jan. 24, 1960 and vs Syracuse, Jan. 31, 1960, both in St. Louis...His best previous high before coming here was in New Orleans in Jan. of 1955 against the Hawks, a 37-pointer.. Credits his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Lovellette, with advancing his court career...She forced him to box, jump rope and take special exercises to develop...Has a fixation about Western clothes and is a devotee of the fast draw and is considered one of the fastest in that fast-arising sport...He has appeared with such western stars as Ty Hardin, Chuck Connors, Roger Smith and Dale Robertson...Has had his own radio show on KMOX-Radio in St. Louis...just purchased 14-acre home in nearby Imperial, Mo. and 100-acre farm near St. Louis...married to the former Sally Wheeler and they have three daughters, Cindy, age eight, Linda, 5½ and Sherry, four...

WGT: 215
Born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma on August 26, 1936
Residing in San Francisco, California
College: University of San Francisco from 1954 until 1958

Farmer was obtained by the Hawks from the Cincinnati Royals in the deal that saw the Hawks give up forward Joe Buckhalter last year... He was the first draft choice of the New York Knicks in 1958 after a fine career at the U. of San Francisco where he played with both Bill Russell and KC Jones of the Boston Celtics...He was a member of the USF team that won 60 straight games during Russell's heyday there...His SF clubs won national acclaim as the greatest defensive college unit of all-time...All told, Farmer played on only eight losing games in three years of college play...He was nominated for All-American honors in his senior year at USF...As a senior there, he led his mates to a 25-2 mark and a 50.5 point-a-game defensive record...He scored 868 points in three varsity years for a 10.6 game mark reaping 698 total rebounds...In 198 NBA contests he scored 1,358 points for a 7.1 per game although seeing limited action until the final 17 games of the 1960-61 season with the Royals...Then he got his chance to play and scored 220 points in the 17 contests for a 12.9 mark...Against the Hawks two years ago, he tallied 99 points in seven games for a 14.1 mark, averaging .448 from the field...He played with Russell and Jones as a sophmore...He played with NY for two-and-a-half years finally being traded to Cincinnati on Nov. 14, 1960...In his first year he missed only 16 free throws in 99 attempts and had a free throw mark of .838 his first year, .843 his second season and .734 his third in the NBA...Last year he played with the San Francisco Saints, now defunct, in the American Basketball League...He was the third best scorer on the club with 962 points in 67 games for a 14.6 mark...He had a .885 free throw record, third best in the ABL...A fine outside shooter, he is best noted for his defensive play...He says he would rather guard the good big men like Elgin Baylor and Tom Heinsohn than anyone else claiming "he plays his best against the best."...He had a 43 high mark as a high school star in Richmond, Calif, and his best collegemark was 26 against SMU in 1957...He scored 25 against Detroit for his pro high in the NBA... An avid water skier, Mike is a car bug and likes to tinker with automobiles...He has a specially-designed Corvette...Setup his own insurance agency in San Francisco two years ago and plans to expand soon...

FRED LaCOUR

Forw

AGE: 24
HGT: 6-5
WGT: 195
Born in San Francisco, California on February 7, 1938
Residing: San Francisco, California
College: San Francisco University from 1956 to 1960

LaCour will be starting his third year with the Hawks this season and he will finally get a chance to make the grade at a single position...In past seasons, he has been used at both a forward and guard spot...This year he's been used as a guard and he will have to make it as a backliner...He was the club's third draft choice in 1960 and has been used as a spot player in his two seasons with the club...He upped his per-game mark to 7.7 a contest last year, playing mainly as a guard...He's a good shooter as witness his .417 and .429 field goal percentages his two years in the league...And his .741 and .762 free throw marks...Fred was a High School All-American at St. Ignatius high school in SF and picked up the name of Fabulous Freddy there... At the North-South All-Star High school cage classic in Murray, Ky. in 1956 he made 19 points and won the MVP award...A slick player with any number of offensive moves, his best weapon is a jump shot with either hand...He is an expert faker who already is as good as any pro in this department...His problem is his speed and he needs work on defense...In both his sophmore and junior years at the U of SF, he was a third team All-American choice...He did not play there in his senior year...As a soph, he led the Dons to a 25-2 record and was his club's number two scorer with a 12.4 mark..He netted 30 points in one game during his junior year for a new single-game school mark... ..He had a 17.1 mark in his junior year, playing half the season... He is one of four SF alumni in pro ball, the others being Bill Russell and KC Jones of Boston and teammate Mike Farmer...He played amateur ball in 1960 with the defunct S F Allen Investors of the NIBL and in 27 games placed fourth among the league's scorers with 626 points and a 23.2 mark...He started getting interested in pro ball after sustaining a broken arm while a youngster...He needed a sport to help regain the strength in his ailing arm...He had his best mark as a pro last year in a game versus Detroit, scoring 28 here Feb. 21...

Born in Hillister, Texas on October 25, 1939
Residing: St. Louis, Missouri
College; Prairie View A & M College (Texas) from 1958-to-1962

Beaty was the Hawks first draft choice last spring after completing anoutstanding year at Prairie View culminated with his leading his school to the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association title in Kansas City in March (NAIA)...He won that tourney's MVP award by unanimous choice and made the all-NAIA first team, and all-tourney team...A great all-around player in college, he needs only experience in the NBA to become one of the top stars in the sport...In the NAIA tourney he set marks for most points scored and for most rebounds... He finished an illustrious college career with 2,057 retrieves for a 19.4 per game rebound mark...Last year he led his school to a 27-3 mark and acclaim as the best small college five in the nation...He scored 665 points in 27 games fora 24.7 mark...He had a fantastic field goal mark of .601 per game and free throw accuracy of .734 per contest...His rebound average last year was a fine 21.6 per contest.. ..In 108 games, overa four-year career he sported a sensational .655 field goal record on 971 goals in 1483 attempts...He was equally proficient from the charity line, getting 625 conversions out of 806 attempts for a .775 record...During his career he scored 2567 points for a 24.2 per game mark and he led his school to 90 wins against only 18 losses...As a sophmore, he led the NAIA All-Stars to a 76-69 win over the national champion Ohio State team in the Olympic trials in Denver, as he dominated both boards...He led his team to Southwestern Athletic Conference title this year and also during the 1960-61 season...Named to many small college all-american teams as a junior and both the AP and UPI teams as a senior... The Big Z played high school football, basketball and baseball, earning all-state honors in basketball in his junior and senior years...He played first baseba the diamond squad hitting over .400 in his senior year...He ran the 440 on the track team, evidence of why coach Harry Gallatin feels he is one of the fastest big men to enter the league in sometime...Beaty scored his collegiate single game high of 48 points against Wiley (Texas) College last February...He likes to read historical novels and is an avid jazz record collector...He supports his widowed mother...He was an excellent student in college sporting a B+ average for four years at Prairie View...

NICK MANTIS

AGE: 26
HGT: 6-3
WGT: 190
Born on December 7, 1935 in East Chicago, Indiana
Residence: East Chicago, Indiana
College: Northwestern University from 1955 to 1959

One of the new players expected to help the Hawks tremendously this year is a former Hawks draftee who had to wait three years for the right opportunity to make the club...Mantis was the club's fourth draft choice in 1959 but did not make the grade that year due to the intervention of military service...After showing promise in the rookie camp that spring, Mantis entered the Marines for six-months getting out that December...He was traded to the Los Angeles (then Minneapolis) Lakers but saw limited service with that club and was released at the end of the season...He stayed out of pro basketball the following year and then played last season with the Kansas City Steers of the American League...When that club failed to tender him a contract, he then signed with the Hawks and was immediately impressive in pre-season drills...At East Chicago's Washington High, he was one of the top stars among the nation's high school players for three years winning all-state honors in 1953-54 and 55...He was named to the Parade All-American (magazine) High School team in 1955...He also lettered in baseball and track there...At North-Western, Nick captain the court squad in his junior and senior years and was named to the All- Big Ten team twice...He was named the best guard in the BIG TEN in his senior year...Last year, in the ABL, he was the third leading scorer on his team, getting 1129 points in 77 games...He had a .411 field goal mark, and a .752 free throw mark... And he averaged 31.6 minutes of playing time a game...In the post-season playoffs, he scored 55 points in five games for a 11.0 mark.. Nick is a fine outside shooter, with good hands and he is an agfessive rebounder...He is one of the fastest men on the team and is a good dribbler...Last year, he scored 36 points against the NY Tapers when the two squads played in St. Louis...This is high mark in pro basketball.

JOHN BARNHILL

AGE: 24
HGT: 6-1
WGT: 180
Born in Evansville, Indiana on March 30, 1938

The sixth draft choice of the Hawks in the spring of 1959, John decided to play amateur ball and acquire additional basketball experience...He won three basketball, two baseball and two track letters at Lincoln high school in Evansville along with three city titles.. He was chosen to the all-state squad in his senior year in 1955... That fall, he entered Tennessee State (A & I) and played four years of varsity ball on a team that has been called the greatest small college unit of all time...The Tennessee State club won the NAIA Small College title in 1956-57, 1957-58 and 1958-59...His high mark as a collegian was 39 markers...In 1959, he moved to Cleveland to join the newly-formed Cleveland Pipers of the National Industrial Basketball League and he helped that team finish in a tie for third in the highly-regarded AAU loop, the highest finish a new team had ever made in that circuit...He played in 31 games that year scoring 657 points for a 21.2 mark...This was the highest average and point-total ever achieved by a guard in regular AAU basketball...He made the All-NIBL squad as a rookie and later was named an AAU All-American following the National AAU tourney in Denver that spring...In 1960-61 he led the Pipers to the NIBL crown and later to the AAU title in Denver...He repeated as both a NIBL and AAU All-American and was chosen as one of the players to represent the United States on a summer tour of Russia in 1961...Jerry Lucas was another player selected...That club won eight games from the Russian squad and one more in Sweden on the tour....Last year, he starred for the Pipers in the fledgling American Basketball League helping that club to the overall ABL flag...He was chosen the Most Valuable Player on the club as he scored 852 points in 75 games for a 11.3 mark...He had a .443 field goal mark, exceptional considering he's mainly an outside shooter...In five playoff games, he averaged 10 points a game...He also led the Pipers in assists...Coach Gallatin figures him to be one of the finest defensive guards in pro basketball...He's exceptionally quick with fine hands....He shots a one-hand outcourt shot that takes off like a shotput...but it goes in...He's married to the former Janet Lee and they have two children, a son John Anthony Jr, age two and a daughter, Schylar, age two months (as of Sept. 20)....

AGE: 22 Chico
HGT: 6-3
WGT: 190
Born in Unity, Illinois on February 19, 1940
Residing: St. Louis, Missouri
College: Southern Illinois University from 1958 until 1962

The Hawks' fourth draft pick last year could be the answer to some of the club's problems this year...He's one of the strongest backcourt men ever to enter the NBA...Judging by pre-season drills, he may be used both as a forward and a guard, since Coach Harry Gallatin feels he can do a good job against certain league forwards...A native of Tamms, Ill. Vaughn set virtually every SIU scoring record under Gallatin, while playing four seasons...He broke every mark except one for total rebounds...All told, he set 12 records for future SIU cagers to contest...Among the records were (1) 2,088 points in 85 games for a 24.5 mark (2) accuracy marks of .439 from the field and .737 at the free throw line and (3) 7.8 rebounds per game, high for a guard...His top point-making year was in 1959-60 when he was a sophmore...In 29 contests he netted 779 counters for a 26.9 average...He scored 620 points in 26 games as a freshman for a 23.8 record, 492 in 21 games as a junior for a 23.4 record and 197 in nine senior games for a 21.9 mark...He missed the rest of his senior year due to eligibility...His ran out...Following his sophmore year, Vaughn was chosen to the 2nd team UPI All-American team and he was named to the first team with Zelmo Beaty as a junior...His SIU mates ranked 4th nationally in 1960-61 with a 20-5 mark...His collegiate high was against Tennessee State as a sophmore when he tallied 43 markers...In high school at Tamms he scored 3,378 points for a still-standing Illinois schoolboy mark... A fine all-around player, he is a great rebounder for his size and aggressive on defensive...The pros call him a digger...He has great control of the ball and is a fine outside jump shooter...Charley played some high school baseball and had a number of pro baseball offers.. Once scored 67 points in high school game verus Thebe, Ill. high.

WGT: 185
Born in Cold Springs, New York on September 26, 1940.
Residing: Katonah, New York
College: Colgate University 1959 until 1962

The second draft choice of the Hawks last spring, Duffy was considered one of the most underrated ballplayers in the conntry last year by most pro scouts...It's doubtful if he would have been available on the third round if the club failed to select him when they did... He was the nation's sixth leading scorer among the major colleges last season with a 26.6 point average on 611 points in 23 games... In three varsity seasons, he scored 1591 points for a 22.7 mark, and set single game,career and average-per-game school marks...He holds other marks ala most fga and most fgm, most fta and most ftm, season and career in each aase...Former NBA stars Carl Braun and Ernie Vande weghe also played at Colgate...He had his college high against the U. of Rochester last season scoring 48 points, another school mark... WGT: 220
Born in Atlanta, Georgia on September 13, 1938
Residing: St. Louis, Missouri
College: Grambling,(Louisiana,)College from 1958 to 1962

The third draft choice of the St. Louis Hawks last spring, Hardnett has been one of the pleasant surprises of the pre-season workouts... Team captain of Grambling college the past three years, he is one of the few players ever to be selected to the NAIA (National Assn of Intercollegiate Athletics) team for three years (1960-61-62)... He led Grambling to the NAIA title in 1961 in Kansas City w inning the MVP award, won by Zelmo Beaty last year...Played with NAIA All-Star team in Denver as sophmore; this was club that downed Ohio State national champions, 76-68...Never played basketball until freshman year in high school at Carver Vocational in Atlanta...More interested in baseball at that time...Played four years of basketb ball, two in football, four in baseball, one in track and two in golf...He was an all-city quarterback twice, all city and all state in basketball four times and all-american once..and tossed the shot, discus and javelin on the track squad...He is also a fine tennis player and likes to swimming holding two Grambling swim marks...He played in national Negro high school tourney at Nashville in 1957 and was spotted by Grambling coach, Fred Hobdy...He had his college high of 47 against Texas Southern and his high school high of 63 in 1957-58 against Hampton high school...Four-year high school mark was 35 points a game average and he led his school to a 20-2 record in his senior year of high school...He had a career mark of 2,289 points in 121 contests for his four varsity years at Grambling for a 18.9 average...As a freshman he scored 463 points in 29 games for a 15.9 mark...As a sophmore he scored 450 points in 34 games for a 13.2 mark; as a junior he scored 805 points in 32 games for a 22.2 record and last year he tallied 616 points in 26 games for a 23.8 record...Grambling had a 20-6 record last year losing out in the regional NAIA tourney to Prairie View...He majored in Physicial Education and Recreation and had goal of eventually teaching or coaching in this field...He is married to the former Annie Frazier of Shreveport, La.
